

ABOUT THE COVER

Gospel side transept of St. Joseph's Cathedral in Tagbilaran as it looked like in the 1980's that shows the elaborate carved stonework above the side doorway before subsequent renovations removed them forever. The pen-and-ink artwork by Boholano visual artist Gene B. Lungay, now based in Germany, hangs on the wall of the ancestral house of its present owner, retired CAS Dean of Holy Name University, Corazon Jamero Logarta.

LUMINA